

CHARLES EDWARD HICKS, JR.
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FOR BAND STUDENTS

We are honored to be able to present this scholarship in memory of our beloved son, Charles Edward, Hicks, Jr. Charles was a quiet and reserved young man. He always had a smile on his face that made him a warm, loving friend to everyone he met. Charles was the kind of son who was a blessing and a privilege to have. He was the best big brother that any little brother could ever want. All of the kids who knew him would say that he was the only "big kid" who was nice to them. Charles will always be remembered for many things. One of which is his love of music. Charles was very active in the Maypearl High School Marching and Jazz Bands. He played the trombone and participated in band for seven years. Charles will also be remembered for loving to play a good game of hacky-sack with his friends. He taught many kids how to play, including his youth pastor at church. He also had a talent for playing video games. Many of his classmates at school recall a time when he would lend them a helping hand with class work. He always had extra supplies to share if someone came unprepared to class. He was not an outspoken person but was passionate about his family, friends, and his education. He always tried his best to succeed and wanted to make his family proud. We have beautiful, positive memories of Charles. He may be gone from us for a while but he will live on forever in our hearts and minds.
